

CT Financial Planner

Receives Industry Award

Milford, CT September 1, 2015 – Choosing a financial advisor is now that much easier as Five Star Professional has just recognized Eric Tashlein, CFP®, Principal and Founder of Connecticut Capital Management Group (CCMG) in Milford, Connecticut, with its Five Star Wealth Manager Award*. This Award reflects Mr. Tashlein’s commitment to integrity and customer service.

“I am committed to earning my client’s trust daily. When someone comes to me, whether planning for retirement, seeking an investment advisor or general wealth management, I take the relationship with the client seriously. I partner with them to help realize their hopes for themselves, their families, their employees,” remarks Tashlein.

The team at Connecticut Capital Management Group, under the supervision of Eric Tashlein, works with both private and corporate clients in the areas of investment & money management, tax planning, retirement income & distribution planning, family wealth planning, risk management & insurance planning and, for corporate clients, enhanced value for corporate 401(k) trustees and investors.

“This is the third time I have received this Award,” notes Tashlein, who received the Five Star Wealth Manager Award also in 2012 and 2013. “Not many financial advisors are so recognized, and I am honored to be one of them.” Traditionally fewer than two percent of the 28,400 wealth managers in the Connecticut area receive this recognition. In order to be considered, a wealth manager must have a favorable regulatory and complaint history and satisfy 10 objective eligibility and evaluation criteria. Wealth managers do not pay a fee to be considered or awarded. Award candidates are identified by one of three sources: firm nomination, peer nomination or pre-qualification based on industry standing. Self-nominations are not accepted.

The complete listing is scheduled to appear in the December issue of Connecticut Magazine.
